

CV

Henrik Landerholm

National Security Adviser

Prime Minister's Office

Areas of responsibility

The Adviser assists the National Security Council and the Prime Minister on foreign affairs, security policy and national security issues.

Personal

Henrik Landerholm was born in 1963. He lives in Stockholm and has three adult children.

Educational background

Fulbright Scholar, University of Delaware	2003
Military Academy general course, Military Academy, Karlberg	1987–1988
Bachelor of Science in Military Studies, Armoured Troops Officers College	1984–1986
Courses in Law, Uppsala University	1982–1983

Positions and assignments

National Security Adviser	2022–
Director-General, Psychological Defence Agency	2022
Ambassador in the United Arab Emirates, Kuwait and Bahrain	2017–2021
Ambassador in Latvia	2014–2017
Senior Civil Representative and head of the Transition Support Team in Mazar-e Sharif, Afghanistan	2011–2013
Director-General, Folke Bernadotte Academy	2008–2011
Lieutenant Colonel, Swedish Armed Forces reserves	2008–
Vice-Chancellor, Swedish Defence University	2002–2008
Chair, Committee on Defence	1998–2002
Member of the Riksdag	1991–2002
Head of Information Services, Timbro	1990–1992
Vice Chair, Young Moderates	1988–1992
Service in the Swedish Armed Forces Armoured Troops	1983–1990
Member/alternate member, Strängnäs Municipal Council	1982–1992

Production: Government Offices of Sweden, Stockholm, October 2023
Photo: Ninni Andersson/Government Offices of Sweden

