

CV

Ylva Johansson

Minister for Employment and Integration

“The Government’s focus is on creating more jobs, closing gaps and increasing cohesion in Sweden. The reception of asylum seekers and newly arrived people is a shared responsibility for the whole of society. The objective is decent and orderly reception and good conditions for introduction in all municipalities.”

Ministry of Employment

Party

Swedish Social Democratic Party.

Areas of responsibility

Employment issues. Responsible for coordinating the introduction of people who were born abroad into Swedish society.

Personal

Ylva Johansson is born 1964. She lives in Stockholm, is married and has three children.

Educational background

Stockholm Institute of Education	1991-1992
Teacher education programme, mathematics and physics, Lund University	1985-1988

Positions and assignments

Minister for Employment and Integration	2014-
Member of the Riksdag, Deputy Chair, Committee on the Labour Market	2010-2014
Member of the Riksdag, Deputy Chair, Committee on Health and Welfare	2006-2010
Minister for Health and Elderly Care	2004-2006
Deputy Managing Director and Managing Director, Att Veta AB	2000-2004
Senior Advisor, Telia Business Innovation	1998-1999
Minister for Schools	1994-1998
Teacher, mathematics/physics/chemistry	1992-1994
Member of the Riksdag	1988-1991
Teacher, mathematics/physics/chemistry	1988

Following the 2014 change of government,
Sweden is governed by the Swedish Social Democratic Party and the Green Party.

Production: Ministry of Employment
Sweden, Stockholm, January 2018
Photo: Kristian Pohl/Government Offices of Sweden