

Social Summit for Fair Jobs and Growth

Gothenburg 17 November 2017

PROGRAMME

09.30–09.45 Welcoming remarks

Location: Plenary hall, Eriksbergshallen

Moderator: Ann Mettler

Webcast

Welcoming remarks by Prime Minister Stefan Löfven and European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker.

09.45–10.10 Introductory session

Location: Plenary hall, Eriksbergshallen

Moderator: Ann Mettler

Webcast

Panel with stakeholders to set the scene and create a joint basis for discussions.

10.10–10.30 Coffee break

Location: Next to the plenary hall, Eriksbergshallen

Participants move to their respective working session.

10.30–12.30 Working sessions on how to promote fair jobs and growth in the future

Location: The three parallel sessions, Eriksbergshallen

Webcast

Interactive in-the-round discussions with a moderator in the middle surrounded by all participants. Discussion papers to provide inspiration for discussions in each session.

Session 1. Access to the labour market

Moderator: Ann Mettler

Session 2. Fair employment and working conditions

Moderator: Tamsin Rose

Session 3. In between jobs: supporting transition

Moderator: Ali Aslan

12.35–13.00 Closing remarks, signing ceremony of the European Pillar of Social Rights, group photo

Location: Plenary hall, square meeting format

Webcast

Brief closing remarks by Prime Minister Stefan Löfven and European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker.

Followed by a ceremony on stage for the signing of the European Pillar of Social Rights by President Juncker, President Tajani and Prime Minister Ratas.

All participants are thereafter invited to the inclusive group photo.
An official group photo will be taken by host photographers

13.15–15.15 Lunch

President of the European Council to chair a working lunch for the leaders of the EU Member States and the Presidents of the European Commission and the European Parliament. All other delegates are invited to an informal lunch.

15.30 Press conference

Location: Eriksbergshallen

Webcast

Press conference with Prime Minister Stefan Löfven, European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker and European Council President Donald Tusk.