People-to-people cooperation
Arctic indigenous peoples have an absolutely unique understanding of the Arctic environment, their ecosystems, and our living food resources,” says Anders Oskal, the EALLU project leader and Secretary General of the Association of World Reindeer Herders.

“EALLU – Food, Knowledge and How We Have Thrived on the Margins”
Boosting Successful Businesses based on Indigenous Values

Indigee aims to develop and assist Indigenous youth towards sustainable economic independence through entrepreneurship.
Results

Survey among the 59 participants shows that:

- 17% increased their income, 29% expecting an increase
- 22% increased their profit, 24% expecting an increase
- 48 new products and services launched
- 6 new enterprises registered
- 24 new cooperations established

A wide network of indigenous entrepreneurs established
Youth is our future
Riddu-Riddu festival
Reindeer race at Murmansk
Thank you for your attention