

CV Stefan Engström

State Secretary to Minister for Higher
Education and Research
Matilda Ernkrans

Ministry of Education and Research

Areas of responsibility

- Higher education
- Research
- Student finance
- Space issues

Personal

Stefan Engström was born in 1970.

Education

Bachelor's degree in economic history, political science and social anthropology, Stockholm University 2012
Natural sciences programme, Palmcrantz Upper Secondary School, Östersund 1989

Positions and assignments

State Secretary, Ministry of Education and Research	2020–
Director of Planning and Chief of Staff, Ministry of Finance	2017–2020
Political Adviser, Ministry of Finance	2017
Acting CEO/Head of Communications, Swedish Performing Arts Association	2016–2017
Head of Communications, Swedish Library Association	2011–2016
Political Adviser, Swedish Social Democratic Party	2007–2011
Director of Planning, Ministry of Sustainable Development	2004–2006
Political Adviser/Press Secretary, Ministry of Justice	2002–2004
Political Adviser, Ministry of Industry, Employment and Communications	2000–2002
Official, Ministry for Foreign Affairs	2000

A state secretary is a politically appointed senior official at the Government Offices responsible to the head of the ministry or another minister. The state secretary is responsible for planning and coordination.

Produced by: Government Offices
Communications Department,
Stockholm, August 2020
Photo: Ninni Andersson/Government
Offices of Sweden

