

CV

Mikael Damberg

Minister for Home Affairs

Ministry of Justice

Party

Swedish Social Democratic Party

Areas of responsibility

Public order and safety, Police service, Public prosecution authority, International judicial cooperation, Civil contingencies planning and accident protection, Government Offices' crisis management, Dam security

Personal

Mikael Damberg was born 1971. He lives in Solna and is married, with two children.

Educational background

Study programme in local government administration,
140 higher education credits, Stockholm University degree 2000

Positions and assignments

Minister for Home Affairs	2019–
Minister for Enterprise and Innovation	2014–2019
Group leader, Social Democratic parliamentary party group	2012–2014
Member of the Riksdag	2002–2014
Chair, Swedish Social Democratic Youth League	1999–2003
Political Adviser, Prime Minister's Office	1997–1999
Political Adviser, Ministry of Defence	1995–1997

Following the 2014 change of government, Sweden is governed by the Swedish Social Democratic Party and the Green Party.

Production: Ministry of Justice, 2020
Photo: Kristian Pohl/Government Offices of Sweden

